

KC 日本フィルム祭

Kansas City Japanese Film Festival

A benefit to help students, schools and families in the Ishinomaki and Tohoku regions recover from the earthquake and tsunami.
Sunday, February 9th at Alamo Drafthouse, 14th & Main, KC

11am: Perfect Blue

1:15pm: Ikiru

(1952, dir. Akira Kurosawa – renowned director of Seven Samurai)

4:15pm: Nausicaä of the Valley of the Wind

(1984, dir. Hayao Miyazaki - famed director of Spirited Away, and this year's Academy Award Nominated film, The Wind Rises)

8pm: Battle Royale

$7.50 per ticket, or $20 for an all-day pass.

Buy in advance at the link below, or purchase at the show.

<http://www.kcjas.org/Default.aspx?pagelD=1665877&eventId=819476&EventViewMode=EventDetails>

Festival Sponsors:

- Heartland JET Alumni Association
- Kansas City Art Institute
- The Consulate General of Japan at Chicago
- Heart of America Japan-America Society

Admissions go to

In honor of the American teacher whose life was lost in the Japanese
tsunami of 2011.